January 2016 Price: Kit $120 - On Premise $170 (makes 30-750ml bottles, bottles not included - $5.70 per)

Known for its higher acidity and lower tannins, Barbera is a very approachable wine. The LE15 Barbera is medium bodied with a sour cherry nose and a bit of earthiness. Bright, red fruit flavours of cherry and cranberry, with a hint of spice, tie it all together. Fresh acidity and smooth silky tannins make this a wine that can easily be enjoyed with or without food.

Pinot Grigio Verduzzo Veneto, Italy- Sweetness: Dry | Body: Light-Medium | Alcohol:13%

January 2016 Price: Kit $115 - On Premise $165 (makes 30-750ml bottles, bottles not included - $5.50 per)

This unofficial “super venetian” white is a blend of the vibrancy of Pinot Grigio with fresh citrus and pear complemented by the honeyed and ripe pineapple notes of Verduzzo. The zesty freshness and acidity is balanced by rounded tropical fruit flavours and a bit of nuttiness leading to a crisp, clean finish. This is a Pinot Grigio with a bit of pop.

Mosaic Red – Paso Robles, California - Sweetness: Dry | Body: Medium- Full | Alcohol:14%

February 2016 Price: Kit $120 - On Premise $170 (makes 30-750ml bottles, bottles not included - $5.70 per)

Like a true mosaic, the varieties in this wine each contribute their individual personality to create a harmonious blend. Merlot and Zinfandel bring round fruit notes while Petit Syrah and Cabernet Sauvignon provide structure and complexity. Mosaic Red has aromas of red fruit with an undertone of smoke and spice. Flavours of juicy blackberry, raspberry, spice and smooth tannins give way to a lingering finish.

Gewurztraminer Verdelho Muscat – Murray Darling, Australia

March 2016 Price: Kit $115 - On Premise $165 (makes 30-750ml bottles, bottles not included - $5.50 per)

The trio of grapes that make up this wine are as distinctive as the blend itself. The wonderfully floral Gewürztraminer headlines as Verdelho’s tropical fruit characteristics play off of Muscat’s infamous grapey flavour.
